

Adam Pierce graduated North Reading High School with a GPA that shows what momentum Adam generated to perform his personal best reaching his potential. Adam exhibited resilience and focus in striving for academic success and always found time to be actively involved with his school community by supporting and encouraging his classmates. Adam worked diligently throughout his high school years and his grades show his hard work. Adam is quite an athlete, participating in basketball, football and soccer. Adam is a well-rounded, industrious young man who plays the guitar in his spare time. Music is one of Adam's passions and one that he hopes to have time for as he goes off to Gordon College in Wenham, MA. to study sports therapy and physical education.
