

On April 14th, people of all walks of life will join together nationwide for a historic moment to fight for $15. Don't miss it.

View this email in your browser

On April 14th, people of all walks of life will join together across Massachusetts for a historic moment to fight for $15. You won't want to miss it.

For every hard working minimum wage worker who dreams of a better future for their family — and for every person who believes that's a dream worth fighting for, this is it. This is the day to be louder, stronger, and more united than we've ever been. Do it.

Show your support: tell us you're in for \$15 on 4/14. And then, tell everyone you know.

You already know why this rally matters so much: the Fight for $15 is a fight for gender pay equality, racial justice, union rights and equal opportunity.

Join with others from Somerville and get on the bus that is leaving from Davis Sq. at 3:00 PM or join with folks getting on the Orange Line at Sullivan Sq at 3:30 PM. We will all meet at Ruggles Station to rally behind Somerville's community banner.

The rally and march begins at Forsyth Park (intersection of Hemenway St. & Forsyth Way) in Boston, MA at 4:00 p.m. Forsyth Park is conveniently located near the Ruggles and Northeastern MBTA stops.

While corporate executives, Wall Street investors and other one-percenters bounce back from the most serious economic recession in 100 years, everyone else continues to face a punishing, decades-long reality of stagnant wages.

Together we're turning the tide in favor of working people and our families.

And we'll need everyone's help — including yours — to make this a reality.

On April 14, we're taking to the streets to participate in an historic demonstration coordinated with other cities across the country to call for $15 an hour and a union rights.

Stand with us.

If you are fed up with working families being forced to survive on poverty wages, while being exploited by companies raking in billions of dollars of profit, then we are taking to the streets on April 14, 2015,

Please RSVP by either simply replying to this email or add your name today to show your support and pledge that you will stand up on April 14 and be one of millions demanding the fair pay, respect, and the future we deserve!

In solidarity,

Rand Wilson

Copyright © 2015 Good Jobs Somerville, All rights reserved.

Local jobs and workers' rights equals good jobs for Somerville!

Our mailing address is:

Good Jobs Somerville

3 Lester Terrace

Somerville, MA 02144

Add us to your address book

unsubscribe from this list update subscription preferences

